GENERAL INFORMATION, INSTRUCTIONS, AND DEFINITIONS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Background.– On the dates listed below, the Department of Commerce issued antidumping and countervailing duty orders on structural steel beams from Japan and Korea:

Date	Type of order	Country	F.R. notice
June 19, 2000	Antidumping duty	Japan	65 F.R. 37960
August 14, 2000	Countervailing duty	Korea	65 F.R. 49542
August 18, 2000	Antidumping duty	Korea	65 F.R. 50502

On May 2, 2005, the Commission instituted a review pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1675(c)) (the Act) to determine whether revocation of the subject orders would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to a domestic industry within a reasonably foreseeable time (70 F.R. 22696). If the Commission makes an affirmative determination with respect to a particular subject order, that order will remain in place. If the Commission makes a negative determination with respect to a particular subject order, the Department of Commerce will revoke that order.

Additional questionnaires will be supplied promptly upon request, or photocopies of the enclosed questionnaire(s) may be used. Address all correspondence to the United States International Trade Commission, Washington, DC 20436. Hearing-impaired individuals can obtain information regarding these reviews via the Commission's TDD terminal (202-205-1810).

Due date of questionnaire(s).--Return the completed questionnaire(s) to the United States International Trade Commission by no later than November 14, 2005. Although the enclosed postpaid envelope may be used to return the completed questionnaire, use of an overnight mail service may be necessary to ensure that your response actually reaches the Commission by November 14, 2005. If you do not use the enclosed envelope, please make sure the completed questionnaire is sent to the attention of Joann Tortorice. Return only one copy of the completed questionnaire(s), but please keep a copy for your records so that you can refer to it if the Commission staff contacts you with any questions during the course of the review.

Service of questionnaire response(s).--In the event that your firm is a party to these reviews, you are required to serve a copy of the questionnaire(s), once completed, on parties to the proceeding that are subject to administrative protective order (see 19 CFR § 207.7). A list of such parties is maintained by the Commission's Secretary and may be obtained by calling 202-205-1803. A certificate of service must accompany the copy of the completed questionnaire(s) you submit (see 19 CFR § 207.7).

Confidentiality.--The commercial and financial data furnished in response to the enclosed questionnaire(s) that reveal the individual operations of your firm will be treated as confidential by the Commission to the extent that such data are not otherwise available to the public and will not be disclosed except as may be required by law (see 19 U.S.C. § 1677f). Such confidential information will not be published in a manner that will reveal the individual operations of your firm; however, nonnumerical characterizations of numerical business proprietary information (such as discussion of trends) will be treated as confidential business information only at the request of the submitter for good cause shown.

Verification.--The information submitted in the enclosed questionnaire(s) is subject to audit and verification by the Commission. To facilitate possible verification of data, please keep all your workpapers and supporting documents used in the preparation of the questionnaire response(s).

Release of information.--The information provided by your firm in response to the questionnaire(s), as well as any other business proprietary information submitted by your firm to the Commission in connection with the review, may become subject to, and released under, the administrative protective order provisions of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1677f) and section 207.7 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR § 207.7). This means that certain lawyers and other authorized individuals may temporarily be given access to the information for use in connection with these reviews or other import-injury investigations or reviews conducted by the Commission on the same or similar merchandise; those individuals would be subject to severe penalties if the information were divulged to unauthorized individuals.

INSTRUCTIONS

Answer all questions.--Do not leave any question or section blank unless a questionnaire expressly directs you to skip over certain questions or sections. If the answer to any question is "none," write "none." If information is not readily available from your records in exactly the form requested, furnish carefully prepared estimates--designated as such by the letter "E"--and explain the basis of your estimates. Answers to questions and any necessary comments or explanations should be supplied in the space provided or on separate sheets attached to the appropriate page of the questionnaire(s). If your firm is completing more than one questionnaire in connection with these reviews (i.e., a producer, importer, purchaser, and/or foreign producer questionnaire), you need not respond to duplicated questions in the questionnaires.

INSTRUCTIONS--Continued

Consolidate all establishments in Japan and in Korea.--Report the requested data for your establishment(s) located in Japan and in Korea. Firms operating more than one establishment in a country should combine the data for all establishments for that country into a single report. Firms operating establishments in both Japan and Korea should provide a separate report for each country.

DEFINITIONS

Structural steel beams.--Structural steel beams are doubly-symmetric shapes, whether hot- or cold-rolled, drawn, extruded, formed or finished, having at least one dimension of at least 80 mm (3.2 inches or more), whether of carbon or alloy (other than stainless) steel, and whether or not drilled, punched, notched, painted, coated, or clad. These products (structural steel beams) include, but are not limited to, wide-flange beams (W shapes), bearing piles (HP shapes), standard beams (S or I shapes), and M-shapes. All products that meet the physical and metallurgical descriptions provided above are considered “structural steel beams” unless otherwise excluded. Structural steel beams greater than 400 pounds per linear foot or with a web or section height (also known as depth) over 40 inches are excluded from this definition. “Structural steel beams” are classified in the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS) at the following statistical reporting numbers: 7216.32.0000, 7216.33.0030, 7216.33.0060, 7216.33.0090, 7216.50.0000, 7216.61.0000, 7216.69.0000, 7216.91.0000, 7216.91.0010, 7216.91.0090, 7216.99.0000, 7216.99.0010, 7216.99.0090, 7228.70.3010, 7228.70.3040, 7228.70.3041, 7228.70.6000.

Firm.--An individual proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, association, corporation (including any subsidiary corporation), business trust, cooperative, trustee in bankruptcy, or receiver under decree of any court.

Related firm.--A firm that your firm solely or jointly owned, managed, or otherwise controlled; a firm that solely or jointly owned, managed, or otherwise controlled your firm; and/or a firm that was solely or jointly owned, managed, or otherwise controlled by a firm that also solely or jointly owned, managed, or otherwise controlled your firm.

Establishment.--Each facility of a firm in Japan and Korea involved in the production of structural steel beams (as defined above), including auxiliary facilities operated in conjunction with (whether or not physically separate from) such facilities.

United States.--For purposes of these reviews, the 50 States, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the District of Columbia.

DEFINITIONS--Continued

Importer.--Any person or firm engaged, either directly or through a parent company or subsidiary, in importing structural steel beams (as defined above) into the United States from a foreign manufacturer or through its selling agent.

Average production capacity.--The level of production that your establishment(s) could reasonably have expected to attain during the specified periods. Assume normal operating conditions (i.e., using equipment and machinery in place and ready to operate; normal operating levels (hours per week/weeks per year) and time for downtime, maintenance, repair, and cleanup; and a typical or representative product mix).

Production.--All production in your establishment(s) in Japan or Korea, including production consumed internally within your firm.

Shipments.--Shipments of products produced in your establishment(s) in Japan or Korea.

Shipment quantities.--Quantities reported should be net of returns.

Shipment values.--Values reported should be net values (i.e., gross sales values less all discounts, allowances, rebates, prepaid freight, and the value of returned goods) in U.S. dollars, f.o.b. your point of shipment in Japan or Korea.

Home market commercial shipments.--Shipments, other than internal consumption and transfers to related firms, within Japan or Korea.

Home market internal consumption/transfers to related firms.--Shipments made to related firms in Japan or Korea, including product consumed internally by your firm.

Export shipments.--Shipments to destinations outside Japan or Korea, including shipments to related firms.

Inventories.--Finished goods inventory, not raw materials or work-in-progress.
